

Federal Election Campaigner Training (Modified August 4, 2015)

Cal Best Boardroom, PSAC Regional Office
287 Lacewood Drive, Halifax

POSTPONED – NEW DATE WILL BE ANNOUNCED SHORTLY

This two-day, skills-based course, offered primarily to PSAC members in targeted ridings will prepare you to play a hands-on role in the upcoming federal election. Participants will explore the impact of Conservative Government policies and actions, and learn how to have political conversations on the door-step and over the phone. Participants will also have the opportunity to put the skills they learn into practice.

What is covered?

- ▶ Loss of salary: For members on shift who are scheduled to work salary will be reimbursed provided a shift schedule & pay stub is provided.
- ▶ Expenses for members from outside HRM will be considered; however, pre-approval is required.
- ▶ Lunch will be provided both days. Please advise on any dietary needs.

All PSAC members in HRM & surrounding area may apply. Preference will be given to members residing in the Dartmouth-Cole Harbour riding.
