PSAC members rally outside their workplace for 19 minutes

CHARLOTTETOWN, PEI - Public Service Alliance of Canada members will be rallying for 19 minutes outside their workplace to focus on the importance of the next federal election set to take place on October 19 2015.

“Every month, our members from the Atlantic Region are taking different actions in highlighting the number 19 in order to bring attention on the importance of the next federal election” says Jeannie Baldwin, PSAC Atlantic Regional Executive Vice-President. She also adds: “This government has no respect whatsoever for the important services that our members deliver to the citizens of this country and we are working diligently to ensure that we have a new government in place in 2015.”

Yvan Thauvette, National President of the Union of Veterans’ Affairs Employees (UVAE), will also be in attendance.

WHEN: Friday, September 19th at 12:19 p.m.

WHERE: Outside Daniel J. MacDonald Bldg. (Grafton Street entrance)
