

Mi'kmaw Native Friendship Centre

with support from

Public Service Alliance of Canada are hosting a community gathering to honor our

MISSING & MURDERED ABORIGINAL WOMEN

At present, there are 824 missing and murdered Aboriginal women in Canada. To some, this number does not appear to be many,

however

We are endeavouring to make this number a visual reality.

Help us to construct a 10' Dream Catcher, on which 824, smaller dream catchers will be hung, representing each and every one of our missing and murdered aboriginal sisters.

Community members are invited to join us and help weave a dream catcher to represent a
